GLENDALE HOSTS FREE TEACHERS NIGHT OUT SEPTEMBER 18 FOR GLENDALE TEACHERS

GLENDALE, Ariz. – Students are not the only ones going back to school to learn. Teachers have the chance, too, at the city of Glendale’s Teachers Night Out! The city is hosting this free Back-to-School event on Wednesday, Sept. 18, from 4 – 7 p.m. at the Glendale Adult Center, 5970 W. Brown Street. Teachers can enter a raffle, enjoy refreshments, free chair massages and collect free materials for their classrooms.

Coordinated by Water Services in conjunction with the Fire, Communications, Police, Recycling, Transportation, Parks and Recreation & Library Services departments, the event will connect teachers with Glendale departments and local agencies that provide high-quality classroom resources, many that are aligned to the Arizona Academic Standards. Teachers will receive lesson plans and information about field trips, guest speaker presentations and activities for their classrooms.

“We’re partnering with several agencies and businesses to provide this unique opportunity for teachers, including Valley Metro, Junior Achievement, APS, ASU, Az SciTech, Challenger Space Center, Deer Valley Rock Art Center Wildlife Word Zoo and more,” said Joanne Toms, water conservation specialist and coordinator of the event.

For more information, call Joanne Toms at 623-930-3535 or email at jtoms@glendaleaz.com. Registration for this free event is required by Sept. 16 and limited to teachers in Glendale schools. To register, visit the website at <http://www.glendaleaz.com/TeacherFair>.
